About the Commemorative Air Force

The Commemorative Air Force (CAF) is not just a museum, it's a global institution. As the world's largest flying military aircraft museum, the CAF is dedicated to educating, inspiring, and honoring with flight and living history experiences. With over 65 years of operation, the CAF maintains the largest airworthy fleet of vintage military aircraft in the world. These aircraft are restored, maintained, and flown so that people can experience American aviation history firsthand. The CAF's mission is to Educate, Inspire, and Honor through flight and living history experiences. The organization's impact is evident in its more than 11,000 members and a fleet of over 175 vintage military aircraft distributed throughout the United States. For more information, visit www.Commemorativeairforce.org.
